

GENDER STUDIES MINOR

PSY 450	Selected Topics	4
MGMT 358	Culture and Gender Issues in Management	4

Program Advisor: Cathy Irwin

This minor offers students the opportunity to think critically about gender and sexuality within the weave of cultural, historical, political, and social forces, recognizing that gender and sexuality are shaped by context, location, and other significant identities, such as race, class, and nationality. Students may complete a minor of 20, 24, or 30 semester hours: the Core requirements and at least 16 semester hours of upper division electives.
