

UNDERGRADUATE

Undergraduate Programs

The LaFetra College of Education offers two undergraduate majors (<https://education.laverne.edu/programs/>) to help you develop the skills needed to have a positive impact on the lives of children and families.

The undergraduate programs are also offered online or at one of our Southern California locations as an accelerated program for working adults.

- Child Development (BS) (<https://laverne-public.courseleaf.com/lafetra-college-education/undergraduate/child-development-bs/>)
- Child Development Minor (<https://laverne-public.courseleaf.com/lafetra-college-education/undergraduate/child-development-minor/>)
- Child Development BS/Child & Adolescent Development MS Pathway (<https://laverne-public.courseleaf.com/lafetra-college-education/undergraduate/child-development-integrated-bs-ms/>)
- Educational Studies (BA) (<https://laverne-public.courseleaf.com/lafetra-college-education/undergraduate/educational-studies-ba/>)
- Educational Studies Minor (<https://laverne-public.courseleaf.com/lafetra-college-education/undergraduate/educational-studies-minor/>)
- Integrated Teacher Preparation Program – (BA) Educational Studies + Credential (<https://laverne-public.courseleaf.com/lafetra-college-education/undergraduate/integrated-teacher-preparation-ba-educational-studies-credential/>)